SEVENTH GRADERS in Toni Lera's social studies class at Lincoln school held their own election Nov. 3. Using sample ballots provided by Rene Davidson, city election official and father of a Marin fourth grader, the youngsters "elected" Reagan, Rockefeller, Younger, Tunney, Delaney, Riles and (bless their little hearts) Sen. Lew Sherman. They were carefully prepared for the election by studying candidates who were familiar to the class.

The big exception, she said, is the frustrated youngster who desperately seeks communication and a meaningful relationship with his or her parents. Failing, they turn to drugs for one of two reasons: to destroy themselves or hurt their parents.

Council Hears Winning Speeches by AHS Students

Three student winners of the recent VFW speech contest delivered their talks at Monday night's City Council meeting. They were introduced by Albany High School Principal Carl Couch.

Lynn Mejia, Jim Wallman and First Place Winner Bob Nora impressed councilmen and audience. At the conclusion of their presentation, Council approved resolutions of commendation for each of the outstanding young people.

Another resolution commended Tom Tallierico of Con-Sea Pharmacy for his courageous act last week when a large man entered the store and demanded drugs. Tallierico, Albany chairman of the Support Your Local Police committee, fought the much larger man and caused him to be arrested.

The late Carl J. MacWilliams was the subject of a resolution of tribute and another adopted 4-0 (Councilman Lewis Howell was absent due to illness) regarded repatriation of captured servicemen in Vietnam.

By letter, Howell announced the appointment of Samuel Dows to fill the vacancy on Planning and Zoning commission created by the death of Mr. MacWilliams.

Councilman George Hein reported he will contact the Chamber of Commerce and Administrative Officer James B. Turner regarding financing the 1971 Veterans' Day Parade in Albany. He is to report in two weeks.

An entertainment permit was granted the Blue Mill for an accordionist between the hours of 6:30 and 9:30 p.m.

A letter from Louise and Anne Bell (see today's Mail Bag) was referred to the police department. A report of injury on a city sidewalk was denied and referred to the insurance carrier and City Attorney Lawrence Saler.

Robert McKnight of 785 Taft was back at the podium to discuss the flaws of a five per cent utility users tax again. He said after last week's Times came out he received 589 telephone calls against the tax. Councilmen reported that only 18 of the public opinion blanks had been returned to them as of Monday night, suggested the possibility that the bulk of McKnight's calls were from one person.

McKnight said many renters did not receive the last issue of this paper and asked Council to request that the poll be run for three weeks. (Depending on space, today may be the last time the coupon appears. Ed.)

The discussion was lengthy with McKnight finally admitting that welfare costs are responsible for most of the tax burden. When Mayor H. F. Call said he is to select an Albany representative to a citizen committee to investigate welfare and suggested McKnight might wish to be appointed, the man at the microphone said he was too busy.

Councilman Hein said 552 Rubella immunizations were given in Albany on the day of the free clinic. He reported that only 174 were given in the rest of the county and some cities gave only one.

The meeting adjourned at 9:35 p.m.

AHS Principal Tells Council Drug Problem Lessening

"This year it appears there is calm and apparently less traffic and usage of drugs," Albany High School Principal Carl Couch told Albany City Council Monday night.

He said the reason is possibly "because of less romantic notions about the ingestion of the contents of capsules."

The matter came up following reading of a report from School Supt. Kenneth M. Forry that the Board of Education has approved the Lockheed Drug program for seventh graders at a cost in excess of $1,100.

Because Council has discussed the need for a community program on drug abuses, Forry suggested the city might wish to share the cost of the program.

The matter was referred to the finance committee. Councilman Richard Clark said it might be part of the answer and there is hope of federal funds through Association of Bay Area Governments through the Safe Streets Act.

Couch, who was in the audience, said during the past four years the school has been developing outside classes for teachers and has incorporated education on drugs in school classes, such as biology.

The school has been highly commended by the state for its companion course for parents in the evening, whereby they have the same program given their children.

"Albany is on the map with regard to a drug abuse program," Couch said. He said the school has 100 per cent cooperation from the Police department and that although he believes the problem is somewhat less this year than it has been, he admitted there have been some serious problems among ex-students and students in the past.

FIDELIS WHITE SHRINE

Fidelis White Shrine 60 will meet Monday, Nov. 23, at 8 p.m. at Albany temple, 533 San Pablo Ave. Worthy High Priestess Dorothy Long and Watchman of the Shepherds Jack Sargent will preside.

Yule Pool Deadlines Approaching; 15 Servicemen on Gift List

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas around the Chamber of Commerce office.

Manager Hal Denham and Irene MacWilliams, Santa's helpers to insure a merry Christmas for Albany servicemen who will not be home for Christmas, say they will accept contributions and names and addresses of servicemen through Nov. 27, the day after Thanksgiving. Packages will be mailed Dec. 4.

Instead of contributions of gifts, the Chamber of Commerce would rather have money so all packages can be the same. Many service clubs have already contributed to the project.

Albany has the distinction of being the only city in the area and perhaps in the nation, with such a project for its servicemen, it was learned last week.

Albany residents have been asked to add these names to their Christmas card lists:

Meeting of Neighbors Friday Aids Crime Control

Not long ago in Albany, a pickup pulled up to an apartment house in broad daylight and two men loaded items from one of the apartments in full view of neighbors and drove away.

Everyone thought the people were moving. Nobody bothered to get a description or a license number.

That home (and many others) would never have been burglarized if the Good Neighborhood Program, a block protection plan that originated in Oakland, had been in effect.

The public has been invited to the organizational meeting at 8 p.m. this Friday at the Veterans Memorial building. The joint meeting of Albany American Legion post 292 and its auxiliary will feature two speakers from 10th district telling how to institute this crime control program here.

Early Deadlines For Next Issue

Because of Thanksgiving, the Times is publishing one day early next week. It will be delivered on Tuesday rather than Wednesday.

Deadlines will be changed accordingly: pictures, Wednesday noon; news, Thursday noon; display advertising, 5 p.m. Friday, and classified, noon Monday.

Meeting of Neighbors Friday Aids Crime Control

Howard W. Olson, chairman, and Vincent Hidalgo, vice chairman of the district's Law and Order committee, will speak. Members of the City Council and Police Chief Ralph M. Jensen have been invited to attend.

Athlete of the Week

TOM HOMAN has been named the third AHS Athlete of the Week for 1970-71. In the Livermore game, Tom was shifted from his linebacker position to defensive halfback. A junior on the varsity football team, Tom accepted the challenge as he came up tough on all sweeps and stopped them for little or no gain. He also did a fine job on offense, catching two passes for 36 yards.

lene Hockanson and Rita Pruyn. Juniors include Kathy McKenna, Sue Luoma and Linda Brummels. Again this year, civic organizations are sponsoring king and queen candidates. Lions will have Joni and Craig; Albany Athletic Boosters, Cynthia and Randy; Chamber of Commerce, Val and Tom DeTar; Rotary, Lori and Tom Drennan; and Soroptimists, Jackie and Herb. Native Daughters will sponsor sophomore candidates and American Legion, juniors.

Theme of the parade, according to Chairman Colleen Moore, is "Mash the Matadors." She said there will be seven "really big" floats plus open convertibles featuring candidates, Maid of Albany, Little Miss Flame and Mayor H. F. Call; American Legion post 292 Color Guard, Marine Corps group, the AHS band, flaggies, pompon girls, cheerleaders and letter girls; Black Student Union drill team and Granada pompon girls and cheerleaders.

Youngsters from Marin, Cornell and MacGregor elementary schools have been urged to ride decorated bicycles in the parade.

New Sign Standard Now Under Construction

Delegates to Inter-Club Council have been informed by Jerome Blank that the contractor now working on Winchell's Donut shop is simultaneously putting up the new civic sign standard on University property at the intersection of Marin and San Pablo adjacent to City Hall.

The project, financed by Albany Rotary club and to be dedicated to the memory of deceased Rotarians, will be 11 feet tall, built of slumpstone and timbers and carry the insignia of nine Albany service clubs.

Rotary club will have its choice of spots. The other club names will be drawn from a hat, possibly by the Mayor, for locations on the sign standard.

Rules have been formulated for use of a portion of the standard to announce civic events. Posters, to be supplied by sponsors of each event, will be protected from the elements by heavy clear plastic. Harold Van Coops, delegate from Albany Municipal Employees association, was chairman for these rules and regulations.

Inter-Club Council Chairman Joe Dagna said, "This is the culmination of many months of effort. . . Wouldn't it be wonderful if the first message could be 'Season's Greetings?'"

ICC News

As a community service for Christmas, Inter-Club Council is planning Christmas caroling for shut-ins from 5 to 7 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 20. The carolers will meet at 4:30 at Dagna's Market parking lot and complete their singing at the Nativity Scene at Key Route Blvd. and Solano.

Albany parlor of Native Daughters of the Golden West is in charge of the caroling project. A piano will be borrowed for the evening. Singers will be welcomed by the group.

The next meeting will be Dec. 14 at the Chamber of Commerce office. Installation of new officers will be in January.

HERE ARE SIX TIPS ON HOLIDAY MAILING

Postal officials today listed six tips on how residents of Berkeley, Albany and Kensington can help meet tight Christmas schedules by careful mailing of cards and parcels.

For the most efficient mailing, the following schedule is suggested:

1. For servicemen overseas — "SAM" (Space Available Mail) Christmas parcels can be sent until Nov. 20 for only the small domestic parcel post charge involved from Berkeley to East or West Coast points of embarkation for military mail. Parcels up to 5 pounds and 60 inches in combined length and girth are accepted at this low rate.

2. Larger parcels (up to 30 pounds with the same length and girth limitations) can be sent as "PAL" (Parcel Airlift) mail, provided they are mailed by Nov. 27. The charge is only $1 per parcel.

United Crusade Answers Sheriffs

In October, Alameda County Deputy Sheriffs' association notified United Bay Area Crusade that its membership had voted to discontinue direct contribution to the agency.

They charged UBAC with supporting organizations "whose motivations appear to be at cross purposes with the goals of law enforcement." Listed were Stiles Hall, University YMCA, Welfare Rights Organization, Legal Aid Society of the county and San Francisco and Neighborhood Legal Services of Berkeley.

The following statement has been issued by UBAC:

The Berkeley Neighborhood Legal Services is not and has never been an agency of the Crusade. It has received all of its support from the Office of Economic Opportunity.

The Legal Aid Society of Alameda County did not assist in publication of the Tenants' Law Manual, and has never urged its use by its staff. The Legal Aid Society is in business to bring legal services to the poor, but their activities can lead only to peaceful disposition of complaints by the due process of law afforded by the courts. In other words, they offer the only alternative to demonstrations and violence.

The San Francisco Legal Aid Society has a subsidiary unit financed by OEO, known as the Youth Law Institute, which prepared a case three years ago urging that Berkeley restrict its police from carrying guns. The case, as presented, was rejected by the courts, and the police continue to carry weapons.

The Welfare Rights Organization, recipient of a special grant in 1970, has been a supporter of the rights of welfare recipients, but obviously has broken no laws during recent encounters between welfare and food coalition groups, because no one was arrested or even threatened with arrest. However, the United Crusade's funds are for a direct service program to assist welfare mothers in home-making services, and setting up child care centers, so that mothers can go to work; in providing low-cost food, and in teaching budgeting of meager finances and purchasing of whole-some food for the children of these economically deprived people.

Stiles Hall, the University YMCA, has stood for freedom of speech by campus student groups in using its premises for 40 years. They do not endorse the opinions expressed by any student group using the facilities in order to uphold the constitutional guarantees of free speech and assembly. However, it is a matter of record that the Black Panther Party has never used the facilities of the YMCA. Some 300

ELLIS-OLSON MORTUARY OFFERS FREE FLAG PINS

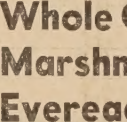

Wearing an American Flag pin stirred a nation-wide controversy when New York policeman Patrick Dolan defied a superior's order to remove it. Officer Dolan won a reversal of the order, and shortly thereafter he received a personal letter of congratulations and appreciation from President Nixon.

May Ellis Olson of Ellis-Olson Mortuary, states that this controversy may have been the start of a new trend: citizens across the land, she says, are beginning to wear pins of the American Flag as a gesture of national loyalty.

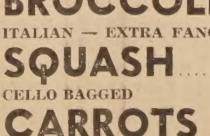

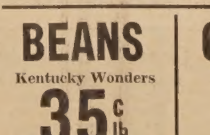

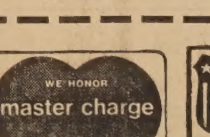

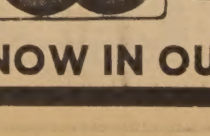

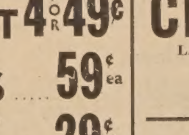

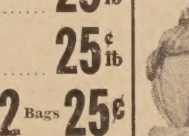

To further this trend locally, the Ellis-Olson organization is offering plastic Flag pins without charge. Along with the pins, the firm is making available a full-color booklet outlining the history of the American Flag and explaining how and when "Old Glory" should be displayed.

In announcing the availability of the pins, Mrs. Olson said: "It seems to me that there has been a move away from Flag and country in recent years. People have shied away from the word 'patriotism' because they've been embarrassed by it or have considered it 'corny'. I think Officer Dolan's story may have helped to mark the point in history where people again demonstrate their pride in being patriotic Americans. At least I hope so."

Mrs. Olson said that pins and copies of the booklet, entitled "A Symbol of Pride," may be obtained by calling, writing, or visiting the Ellis-Olson Mortuary at any time.

SENIOR CITIZENS

846 Masonic Ave.

By Margaret Longpre

A busload of Seniors went to Sausalito Nov. 9 to view the model of the Bay and Delta. It was a very large model and it was a good thing a gentleman escorting us explained what we saw.

I for one would have been at sea without his explanation. I hope the rest of the group was brighter than I. Several small bas reliefs helped us to understand the large model.

Lunch was served at Zack's.

The trip back was by boat to San Francisco, where the bus met us. The boat trip was delightful even if the fog and mist were quite heavy.

The Center was closed on Veterans' Day. Understand the Sunday lunch was very well attended. The next will be at 1 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 13. Make reservations.

Last Week

The Mini Sale was so successful that Tina Gregory and Edith Towel are looking forward to another in a month or so. In spite of the inclement weather we have had, the Sunday lunch was very well attended. Looks like our Sunday lunch may be a permanent thing.

The Seniors are collecting canned goods to be distributed to the needy. Nothing that is breakable.

Nov. 30 will be travel slides. Refreshments will be served.

Homer Stephens High 12 Speaker

Albany High Twelve Club will hear of the adventures and pleasures of a 40-day tour of the U.S.A. sponsored by SIRS branch 2 at noon Friday, Nov. 20, in the banquet room of Kirby's, El Cerrito Plaza.

Homer Stephens, tour director who had nine members of the club on the tour, will show slides and movies of the places visited.

Wives of the nine High Twelve members who made the tour are invited to see the first showing of the pictures of the tour.

According to Stephens, the saga of this tour should induce itchy feet to accompany him on the next big tour in 1971.

Katherine Cook Honored at Party

Mrs. Katherine Cook, who lived on Curtis Street in Albany for 25 years, was recently honored at a neighborhood gathering prior to moving to Lafayette.

Hostesses included Mrs. L. J. Hardie, Pauline Mugford and Mrs. J. A. Smyle.

Mrs. Cook was active in the United Nations group, Republican Women and Marin and Albany High PTAs. She was originator of Albany Mothers' alumni, a member of Epworth Methodist church and employed at Berkeley YWCA for nine years as nursery superintendent.

She has a daughter, Noreen Sebree, and two grandchildren, Mike and Jenni.

"I will never forget Albany and all my friends there," Mrs. Cook wrote.

School Benefit

A lot of heavy talent will be getting together at Richmond auditorium Dec. 4. The San Francisco Dancer's Workshop (fantastic!) and two rock bands, The Daily Planet and Ruby Taton will put on a benefit show called the "New Time Shuffle" for Crestmont school.

Crestmont is a free school organized by people who are concerned about the repressive atmosphere in public schools. The school offers a relaxed place for the kids to learn on an individual basis. Half the proceeds from this fund-raising evening will be used to buy badly-needed supplies and equipment for the school.

Tickets are $3 at the door, which opens at 8:30 p.m., or in advance through Ticketron, or by calling 237-6633.

PTA Council Members Tour Teen Center

Only a few members of the Albany PTA Council took advantage of a tour of Teen Challenge Center in San Francisco Nov. 4.

This very worthwhile endeavor is carried on in San Francisco under the direction of Dr. and Mrs. Waltermann. San Francisco Teen Challenge Center is one of 30 such centers located throughout the United States, the result of Rev. David Wilkerson's involvement with seven boys indicted in New York City for the murder of a crippled teenager. As a result of this murder, Rev. Wilkerson's efforts have burgeoned into the Teen Challenge movement which has saved other boys and girls from crime and addiction.

Dr. Waltermann explained in detail the problems encountered when a young drug addict is admitted to the Center. Not only the problems they encounter, but many of the problems the addict encounters.

A tour through this Center is a must for all parents. Call Teen Challenge Center, 959 South Van Ness Ave., San Francisco. Needless to say Mmes. George Jaekel, Deniz Criss, Michael Brennan, Phyllis Giblin and Reynold Nelson were very impressed and have renewed hope that there is hope for the addict.

Alfred G. Wardley In New Position

Alfred G. Wardley of Oakland has been appointed Director of Development for Children's Hospital Medical Center of Northern California, it was announced by Phillip Holmes, president, and Harold B. Smith, Jr., president of the CHMC Foundation.

"Mr. Wardley will direct a program of development for the Foundation and the Hospital," said Smith, "which will provide the essential equipment to maintain quality pediatric care as well as create an endowment for future building and expansion."

Smith stated that "the new tax reform act of 1969 permits donors many advantages in making deferred gifts. For the first time, the tax law permits a person to give up to 50 per cent of his gross income to non-profit organizations.

High School PTA Plans Luncheon

Albany High school PTA is again making plans for the annual Scholarship Luncheon in February.

Mrs. Ian Ball and Mrs. Robert Nehls are co-chairmen. Last year, scholarships totalling $1,000 were presented to six graduating seniors from proceeds derived from the luncheon.

One of the features of the luncheon is a gift booth. Articles for the gift booth are made by parents of students at the school. Workshops have been scheduled on Fridays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the recreation center at the University Village.

Everyone interested in working on the various projects is welcome. Bring a bag lunch if you can stay for several hours. Coffee will be served. Ideas and supplies to create articles are happily accepted.

Doug Ellinger Wins DFC

Capt. John D. (Doug) Ellinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ellinger of 1214 Garfield, has received the Distinguished Flying Cross for his flying feats in Southeast Asia.

A graduate of Albany High school and San Francisco State, Captain Ellinger is a Boeing B-52 Stratofortress co-pilot assigned to the 69th Bomb Squadron.

While assigned to the 9th Special Operations Squadron, Da Nang Air Base, in Vietnam, he flew in support of the psychological warfare mission of the unit. He logged 275 combat missions, dropping 2½ to 3 million leaflets each mission during his tour as a C-47 pilot.

The citation accompanying the medal read in part: "Capt. Ellinger was constantly threatened by adverse weather conditions and hostile ground fire and attack. In spite of these conditions, Captain Ellinger superbly accomplished these highly intricate and hazardous missions in support of the free world forces combating aggression."

The captain also received the air medal with first through sixth oak leaf clusters for meritorious achievement while participating in aerial flight.

Flag Football

THE FINAL GAME of Marin and Cornell's flag football season was held last week. Cornell's Super Bowl team, right, last year's champions, again defeated Marin, 14 to 8. Marin's Powder Puff team at left, defending champions, went down to defeat as Cornell made it a clean sweep and their girls won 24-0. This picture, planned for last week, shows the '69 winners. Albany Recreation department, which sponsors the program, plans the basketball season now that football championships have been determined.

Couch to Discuss Curriculum Nov. 19

Albany High School PTA President Mrs. James Robbins and First Vice President Mrs. Wallace Flores have planned a most interesting meeting to be held on Thursday, Nov. 19, at 7:30 in the high school cafeteria. Following a short business meeting, Carl Couch, principal, will make a presentation on "Curriculum Improvement."

A film entitled "A Multitude of One(s)" will be viewed, showing various outstanding programs at schools throughout the country.

Senate Bill 1 provided many opportunities to change the school day, as it is now known, to allow for more flexible programming. The professional staff at AHS has formulated their ideas to improve the instructional program to provide more time for individual skills and needs. All ideas are still in the consideration stages. Couch will welcome questions from parents regarding changes which will affect their students.

All parents are urged to come, listen, express opinions, and question Mr. Couch on all facets of this program.

Eleventh grade representatives will be hostesses, and they are: Mesdames Melvin Ayers, Ken Ridley, Len Patterson, John Pun and Maurice Segerberg.

At th Homemaking and Consumer Conference in Anaheim next month, Mrs. Allen will be leading a study session following the keynote address.

Mrs. Allen, who teaches the clothing classes is joined by Mrs. Ida Cherry, who teaches family living and fabrics classes, and Mrs. Judy Ahranjani, who teaches all sections of foods.

Kina Mitchell Teaches Acrylics

The first and only teacher of acrylics in Albany Adult school is Kina Mitchell, who is already finding it rewarding to see students making money selling their paintings. She also teaches watercolor painting to adults.

In addition, she herself has sold beautiful flower paintings in acrylics as well as oils and watercolors.

Miss Mitchell, who maintains an interior decorating studio in El Sobrante, holds a bachelor of arts degree from the University of California and has studied with the late Hayward Veal, English painter; Peter Bloss, portrait painter, and Richard Yip, noted watercolorist. The originator of acrylic paints, the late Jose Guevarez, director of fine arts in Mexico City, offered advice and encouragement to Miss Mitchell.

The artist received a written commendation from Queen Elizabeth for her watercolor of little John Kennedy.

She is a member of the Society of Western Artists.

AHS Senior Parents Decide on Party Similar to Last Year

Parents of Albany High seniors are busy working to raise money needed to finance the All-Night Party to be held for the class after graduation on June 10.

At the first meeting, all parents present discussed suggestions made by students, and after a process of elimination, presented the ones most wanted and possible to the general meeting.

It was decided there will be dinner and dancing at Hs Lordships, bus transportation to and from the Port of Oakland, and a bay cruise, ending with breakfast at approximately 6 a.m. June 11.

The initial expenses of the party will be shared equally by seniors with the remainder to be provided by parents during the year with various fund-raising activities. Some are already underway.

Letters have been mailed to all senior parents and it is hoped an early response will be sent to th treasurers, Mr. and Mrs. H. Thompson. The finance chairmen are working out a budget and will have a report ready to present at the January meeting.

You don't write a bouncing check on purpose. But sometimes it happens. (Maybe you didn't put in a deposit when you thought you did. Or, maybe you slipped up on addition in your check register.) And there you are, faced with a statement that says you've made an overdraft. It can be irritating. And, sometimes, even embarrassing.

This is why Bank of America put together some overdraft insurance called Instant Cash Checking Account Service. Once you've applied and your credit's been approved, you have an automatic guarantee against overdrafts up to the amount authorized under the terms of the agreement. Your checks won't bounce and you'll save yourself a lot of irritation and frustration.

Sound good? It is. Drop by your nearest Bank of America branch for more information about a Personal Choice Checking Account combined with Instant Cash. It's just one of the many ways we can help you with the business of living.
